 - 2.2.7. Carrying out operations, attracting and placement of funds on behalf of clients (trust operations);
 - 2.2.8. Keeping and record maintenance for valuables, including the securities;
 - 2.2.9. Credit-information services;
 - 2.2.10. Services related to any of the activities provided above;
 - 2.2.11. Any other type of banking activity carrying out of which is permitted for the Bank under the laws of Georgia.
- 2.3. When carrying out its activities the Bank is obliged to comply with the economic limits and economic standards set by the National Bank of Georgia.
 - 2.4. The Bank shall adhere to the rules and regulations set forth by the banking legislation of Georgia regarding holding the equity interests by the Bank in other legal entities.

Article 3

Charter Capital, Shares and Other Securities

- 3.1. The total Declared Charter Capital of the Bank amounts to GEL 19,783,409 (nineteen million seven hundred eighty-three thousand four hundred nine).
- 3.2. The Bank's total declared Charter Capital is divided into 19,783,409 (nineteen million seven hundred eighty-three thousand four hundred nine) common shares. Par value per share is GEL 1.00 (one). Each common share entitles one vote to its owner at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Bank will issue the shares only in case of full payment of their par value.
- 3.3. The Bank has the right to issue preferred shares in accordance with the laws of Georgia. Such preferred shares shall form part of the Charter Capital and entitle their owners to a specific rate of dividend. The amount and rules of preferred dividend payout will be defined under the relevant share issue prospectus (if any) in accordance with the applicable laws. Preferred shares will not be entitled to voting rights at the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 3.4. Holders of the Bank's shares shall have a preemptive right to acquire additional shares issued by the Bank, in the same proportion which the par value of such holder's shares bears to the total par value of all shares outstanding immediately prior to the issuance of such additional shares; except that such right shall not exist with respect to the shares issued out of the part of Authorized Capital designated by the General Meeting of the Shareholders for employee stock ownership purposes in accordance with section 3.10 below. In all other cases, cancellation / waiver of preemptive rights to the newly issued shares shall be approved by the General Meeting of the Shareholders in accordance with sub-section 7.3.3 and section 7.5.
- 3.5. Maintenance of the register of the Bank's shares shall be carried out by an independent registrar in accordance with the established procedures.
- 3.6. General Meeting of Shareholders is authorized to make decisions on increasing or decreasing the Bank's Charter Capital via issuing new or canceling the existing shares (in the cases envisaged by the applicable laws). Acquisition price of newly issued shares shall not be less than nominal value per share.
- 3.7. Charter Capital can be increased by means of the conversion of reserve funds into the Charter Capital. In such case, the cancellation of the Shareholders' preemptive rights to subscribe for any newly issued share is forbidden.
- 3.8. For the purposes of increasing the Charter Capital, the Bank may issue other securities convertible into common and/or preferred shares.

- 3.9. When increasing the Bank's Charter Capital via Authorized Capital, the Bank's management is entitled, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, to fully or partially increase the Charter Capital up to the amount indicated in the relevant resolution by means of issuing new shares. The resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding the increase of Charter Capital via Authorized Capital shall include whether or not and in what amount the increase affects the preferred and common shares, as well as the term of the authorization (such term shall not exceed five (5) years).
- 3.10. If and when so decided by the General Meeting of the Shareholders, part / all of the Authorized Capital may be allotted for employee share ownership plan as approved by the Supervisory Board. In such case, issuance of the new shares for any other purposes out of such (part of) Authorized Capital so designated for the employee share ownership plan shall be forbidden. For avoidance of any doubt, if and when the General Meeting of the Shareholders votes for approval of part / all of the Authorized Capital for the employee share ownership plan, the shares issued out of such Authorized Capital (respective part thereof) shall be free of any preemptive rights.
- 3.11. The Bank may redeem its shares in accordance with the rules and in the amount defined by the relevant laws. Except for the mandatory redemption of the shares envisaged by the applicable laws, the Bank has the right to purchase and subsequently sell its own shares (the "Treasury Shares"). The maximum amount of the Treasury Shares shall be ten percent (10%) of the total number of shares outstanding. The Bank's Treasury Shares are not accounted for during the vote count, dividend distribution, liquidation and enforcement of other rights with respect to the shares. The same rule applies to the shares owned by the subsidiaries, save that the shares held by the subsidiaries on behalf of their clients / customers (i.e. where the subsidiary acts as a nominee holder of the shares) shall have the voting, dividend and other similar rights.
- 3.12. The Bank has the right to issue bonds and other securities on the basis of the resolution by the Supervisory Board.

Article 4

The Bank's Shareholders

- 4.1. The Bank's shareholders are those persons who hold the shares of the Bank under the established rules and regulations and are registered with the share registrar of the Bank. The Bank's shareholders may be the legal entities established in Georgia or in foreign countries, citizens of Georgia and of other countries.
- 4.2. The shareholders have the rights to the following:
 - 4.2.1. attend or be represented at the general meeting of shareholders and take part in the voting (holders of the common shares);
 - 4.2.2. participate in the distribution of profit and receive their pro rata share of dividends;
 - 4.2.3. dispose of their shares in accordance with the rules defined by laws;
 - 4.2.4. in case of the liquidation of the Bank, receive their pro rata share of the assets remaining after the payment of the claims of the creditors;
 - 4.2.5. holder(s) of five percent or more of the outstanding shares are entitled to request the special inspection of the business activities and the annual balance sheet if they believe in their reasonable judgment that material irregularities have taken place. Such request shall be submitted in writing to the Supervisory Board. Within fifteen (15) days from the date of acceptance of the written request the Supervisory Board may:
 - (a) instruct the Management Board to arrange for the carrying out at the Bank's expense special inspection if it shares the concern of the shareholder(s); or
 - (b) refuse to carry out special inspection at the expense of the Bank and allow such shareholder(s) to perform the inspection at its (their) own expense, if it believes in its reasonable judgment that no material irregularities have taken place. In such case, if the inspection reveals any material irregularities, the Bank shall compensate the shareholder(s) for any costs and expenses pertaining to such inspection; or
 - (c) refuse to carry out special inspection and not allow the shareholder(s) to perform the inspection at its (their) own expense, if it believes in its reasonable judgment that (i) no material irregularities have taken place, and (ii) performing the special inspection by the shareholder(s) may be against the interest of the Bank (e.g. due to competition, confidentiality or other similar matters). In such case, the shareholder(s) is (are) authorized to appeal such decision of the Supervisory Board at the appropriate court.

- 4.2.6. holder(s) of five percent or more of the outstanding shares are entitled to request that an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders be called. A written request to this effect should be submitted to the Bank's Management Board. If the Bank's Management Board does not call the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders within twenty (20) days following receipt of such request, the requesting shareholder(s) can refer to court;
 - 4.2.7. any shareholder may request from the Management Board and the Supervisory Board clarifications and explanations with respect to any item included in the agenda of the General Meeting of the Shareholders. If such request is submitted in writing at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the General Meeting of the Shareholders, the request must be fulfilled or it must be discussed at the meeting as one of the items in the agenda.
 - 4.2.8. the shareholders can use their voting rights for their own interests except in cases when the voting matter concerns a potential transaction between them and the Bank.
- 4.3. The shareholders of the Bank shall:
- 4.3.1. ensure the payment of their respective contributions to the Bank's Charter Capital so that the appropriate amounts of shares are registered in their names;
 - 4.3.2. act in accordance with the rules defined in the present Charter;

Article 5

Distribution of Profit and Compensation of Loss

- 5.1. Rules of profit distribution:
- 5.1.1. Within one (1) month from the completion of annual audit (but in any case, at least one (1) month prior to the annual General Meeting of the Shareholders), the Management Board of the Bank shall prepare a proposal on the distribution of profit and submit to the Supervisory Board for approval. If the proposal on the distribution of profit is agreed upon, the Supervisory Board and the Management Board shall submit a joint proposal to the General Meeting of Shareholders. If the Management Board and the Supervisory Board fail to reach an agreement on distribution of profit, each of them shall submit separate proposals to the General Meeting of Shareholders. The issue of distribution of profit should be resolved/approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
 - 5.1.2. Upon decision of the General Meeting of the Shareholders, net profit, used for dividend payout, shall be distributed among the shareholders in accordance with the rules and procedures set out in section 5.2 below. For the avoidance of doubt, the shareholders are not entitled to any other payments or compensation.
- 5.2. Dividend payout
- 5.2.1. The General Meeting of the Shareholders shall fix the record date ("Dividend Record Date") which shall be at least fifteen (15) days after the date of the General Meeting of the Shareholders, provided that such date shall be a business day. Only the shareholders holding the Bank's shares as of the closing of the Dividend Record Date will be eligible to dividends proportionally to the shares held by them.
 - 5.2.2. The same General Meeting of the Shareholders shall also fix the dividend payout start date ("Dividend Payout Start Date"). The Dividend Payout Start Date shall be at least fifteen (15) days after the Dividend Record Date, but any case, within two (2) months from the date of the relevant General Meeting of the Shareholders.
 - 5.2.3. The Dividend Record Date and Dividend Payout Start Date shall be published in printed media within five (5) days from the date of the relevant General Meeting of the Shareholders and the shareholders holding at least one percent (1%) of the shares shall (or such other smaller stake as might be envisaged by the applicable laws) must be notified via registered mail or in person.
- 5.3. If, according to the annual results, the annual earnings of the Bank are not sufficient to cover expenses, the Bank shall report a loss. Such loss shall be covered from the Bank's funds and retained earnings. If such funds and retained earnings are not sufficient, the loss shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year.

- 5.4. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall annually elect the auditor, which shall be economically and legally independent from the Bank. The obligatory annual audit review conducted by such auditor shall include accounting procedures, balance sheet and business practice of the Bank and its subsidiaries. Immediately upon the completion of the annual audit, the full report shall be presented to the National Bank of Georgia; the Bank's financial statements and auditor's report shall also be published in accordance with the rules set by the National Bank of Georgia.

Article 6 Management of the Bank

- 6.1. The highest governance body of the Bank is the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 6.2. The Supervisory Board oversees the activities of the Bank. Members of the Supervisory Board are elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 6.3. The Bank's day-to-day management and administration is carried out by the Management Board (Directors) appointed by the Supervisory Board. The Management Board is led by the Chief Executive Officer (General Director).

Article 7 General Meeting of Shareholders

- 7.1. Convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders:
- 7.1.1. Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened by the Supervisory Board annually, not later than two (2) months following the completion of external audit of the Bank's books and in no case later than six months from the end of the prior fiscal year. Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders may be called from time to time by the Supervisory Board, the Management Board, or on the basis of a written request of the shareholder(s) holding at least five percent (5%) of the Bank's shares.
- 7.1.2. Convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders will not be necessary if the shareholder holding more than seventy-five (75%) percent of the Bank's voting shares makes the decision regarding the issue on the agenda. Such decision shall be equivalent of the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders and shall be considered as a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders. In such cases the remaining shareholders shall be notified about such resolution. If more than one shareholder owns more than seventy-five (75%) percent of shares of the Bank, convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders is mandatory.
- 7.1.3. Time, place and the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be published in printed media at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of such General Meeting of Shareholders. Shareholders holding at least one (1%) percent of the Bank's shares should be notified about the General Meeting of Shareholders via registered mail or in person. In certain cases envisaged by the applicable laws, the shareholders holding smaller stakes in the Bank's equity shall also receive notifications.
- 7.1.4. The Supervisory Board determines the record date for the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the applicable laws.
- 7.1.5. The General Meeting of Shareholders is capable of decision-making and the quorum is established, if attended or represented by the holders of at least half of the voting shares. If the General Meeting of Shareholders is incapable of decision-making, a new General Meeting of the Shareholders shall be convened with the same agenda and within the period determined by the Supervisory Board in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 7.1.3 above. The new General Meeting of Shareholders shall be capable of decision-making if attended or represented by the holders of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the voting shares. If the General Meeting of Shareholders is still incapable of decision-making, a new General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened with the same agenda and within the period determined by the Supervisory Board in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 7.1.3 above. Such General Meeting of Shareholders shall be capable of decision-making despite the number of attending voting shareholders or their representatives.

- 7.1.6. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be presided by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board; in case of his absence – by the Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Board or any other member of the Supervisory Board; in case of the absence of the members of the Supervisory Board, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be presided by the Chief Executive Officer. In case an agenda item arises at a General Meeting whereby the person presiding faces a conflict of interest, that item shall be presided by an independent Supervisory Board member.
- 7.1.7. The minutes of the meeting shall be drawn by the secretary of the General Meeting of Shareholders and shall be certified by the notary. The minutes shall be available to any shareholder, members of the Supervisory Board and their representatives.
- 7.2. Representation at the General Meeting of Shareholders
 - 7.2.1. All shareholders registered at the share registrar as of the record date of the General Meeting of the Shareholders shall have the right to attend and vote at the meeting
 - 7.2.2. A shareholder can assign his/her/its rights to other shareholder, or any third party on the basis of power-of-attorney certified by the notary. If the trustee of the shareholder fails to present such power-of-attorney, he/she/it will be deprived of the right to attend and vote at the meeting. Representation by the nominee shareholders (including without limitation the brokers and dealers) shall be regulated in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations. Representation of the shareholders at the General Meeting of the Shareholders may also be carried out in any other manner unless prohibited by the applicable laws.
- 7.3. General Meeting of Shareholders reviews and makes resolutions on the following issues:
 - 7.3.1. Approval and amendment of the Bank's Charter (including Charter Capital, change of the corporate name, etc.), making of a decision on the Bank's liquidation;
 - 7.3.2. Making decisions on the mergers, divisions or transformations;
 - 7.3.3. Full or partial cancellation of the preemptive rights during the increase of Charter Capital;
 - 7.3.4. Approval or rejection of the proposal of the Supervisory Board or the Management Board regarding the utilization of profit, or if these bodies cannot provide a joint proposal, making a decision about the utilization of net profit;
 - 7.3.5. Election or dismissal of shareholders' representatives to/from the Supervisory Board and working out Code of Conduct for the Supervisory Board members;
 - 7.3.6. Approval of the reports of the Supervisory Board and Management Board;
 - 7.3.7. Making decision about the compensation of the members of the Supervisory Board;
 - 7.3.8. Election and dismissal of the members of the Audit Committee (including the Chairman of the Audit Committee) and making decision regarding their compensation;
 - 7.3.9. Election of the auditor and the special controller;
 - 7.3.10. Making decisions on participation in litigation against the members of the Supervisory Board and the Management Board, including the appointment of the representative in such litigation;
 - 7.3.11. Making decisions on the acquisition, sale, transfer, exchange (or such related transactions) or other encumbrance of the Bank's properties, value of which is more than fifteen percent (15%) of the equity value of the Bank;
 - 7.3.12. Approval of annual accounts;
 - 7.3.13. Making decisions in other cases provided by the law.
- 7.4. Decisions on all other issues shall be made by the Supervisory Board and the Management Board within their respective capacities.
- 7.5. The issues enumerated in Article 7.3 require the votes of the holders of more than fifty percent (50%) of the attended/represented voting shares, except for the issues listed in points 7.3.1. and 7.3.4. which require the votes of holders of more than two thirds (2/3) of the attended/represented voting shares, and issues listed in points 7.3.2. and 7.3.3. which require the votes of the holders of more than seventy-five percent (75%) of the attended/represented voting shares.

Article 8 Supervisory Board

- 8.1. The Supervisory Board consists of 7 (seven) members. Members of the Supervisory Board are elected and dismissed by the General Meeting of the Shareholders. The Supervisory Board and each voting shareholder shall have the right to nominate nominees for election to the Supervisory Board.
- 8.2. Method of vote accumulation shall be used for electing the remaining members at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The method of vote accumulation entails the following:
 - a. Each voting shareholder distributes his/her/its votes between any of the nominees so that the total amount of his/her/its votes does not exceed the total amount of the shares held by him/her/it;
 - b. With his/her/its vote the shareholder can only vote for the nominee to the Supervisory Board (it is forbidden to vote against any nominee);
 - c. If the number of the nominees equals or is less than the number of members to be elected to the Supervisory Board, then each nominee who received at least one vote shall become a member of the Supervisory Board; if the number of nominees is more than the number of members to be elected to the Supervisory Board, those nominees who receive the highest number(s) of the votes will become the members of the Supervisory Board.
- 8.3. Should any of the shareholders or the group of the shareholders obtain twenty percent (20%) or more of the Bank's shares after all the Supervisory Board members are elected, then upon the occurrence of vacancy at the Supervisory Board, such shareholder or the group of the shareholders shall have the right to nominate and elect their representative to the Supervisory Board. This provision shall not be applicable if such shareholder (group of the shareholders):
 - (a) already has at least one representative to the Supervisory Board; and/or
 - (b) can without distributing its votes elect one representative to the Supervisory Board through the method of vote accumulation.
- 8.4. Unless otherwise specified by the General Meeting of Shareholders, each member of the Supervisory Board shall be elected for the period of four years, however should this period end before a new election takes place, their authority shall be prolonged until the next General Meeting of Shareholders is convened.
- 8.5. Each member of the Supervisory Board may resign from the Supervisory Board upon submitting at least four weeks prior written application to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. New member of the Supervisory Board shall be elected not later than three months after the retirement/withdrawal of the member. Dismissal of the member of the Supervisory Board is possible by the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Such decision requires the votes of the holders of the more than 50% (fifty percent) of attended/represented voting shares.
- 8.6. A member of the Supervisory Board may not serve as a the member of the Management Board at the same time.
- 8.7. An individual cannot be the members of the Supervisory Board or he/she shall be dismissed from the Supervisory Board, if he/she is:
 - a. a member of the Supervisory Board or Management Board of more than three companies registered in Georgia;
 - b. a member of the Supervisory Board, Management Board or the Audit Committee of the other commercial bank or non-banking deposit institution registered in Georgia;
 - c. an employee of the Bank;
 - d. not eligible for Supervisory Board in accordance with applicable laws;
 - e. bankrupt.
- 8.8. The Supervisory Board elects the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman from its members. Chairman (or in case of his/her absence Deputy Chairman) convenes the meetings of the Supervisory Board and determines the agenda. Any member may add items to the agenda or request a meeting of the Supervisory Board.

- 8.9. Meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be held at least once in a quarter at the address of the Bank or any other location. A written notification with the respective agenda shall be sent at least eight days prior to the anticipated date of the meeting. With the agreement of other members, the Chairman (himself or at the request of any member) may call the meeting verbally or otherwise. The members of the Supervisory Board may be represented by other members. Each member may represent only one other member of the Supervisory Board.
- 8.10. Subject to Article 8.18 below, the Supervisory Board has the right to make decisions if more than half of the members attend or are represented at the meeting. If the Supervisory Board is not authorized to make decisions, a new meeting may be convened after three (3) working days. The new meeting will be authorized to make decisions regardless of the number of members attending or being represented at the meeting. Subject to Article 8.18 below, the decisions shall be taken by the simple majority of the votes of the Supervisory Board members, attending or represented at the meeting.
- 8.11. If agreed by the Supervisory Board members, a meeting may be held via telephone or video conference calls.
- 8.12. The minutes of the meeting and on resolutions of the Supervisory Board are drawn up by the secretary of the Supervisory Board. The minutes will be sent to all members of the Supervisory Board and approved at the earlier of (i) written agreement by all members or (ii) approval at a subsequent meeting. The minutes then are signed by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board (in case of his/her absence, Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Board, and in case of the absence of the Deputy Chairman – by any member of the Supervisory Board). The minutes shall state the place and time of the meeting, list of the attendants, agenda, brief contents of the discussions held at the meeting and the relevant resolutions.
- 8.13. Each member of the Supervisory Board has one vote. Any member shall not participate or vote in Supervisory Board discussions regarding any agenda item where the member has a conflict of interest. Should the Chairman be so excluded, then the Supervisory Board shall select a new chairman of the meeting for the consideration of that item.
- 8.14. The Supervisory Board may decide, by simple majority, to create committees. The composition of such committees and their tasks shall be determined by the Supervisory Board. Committees shall report their conclusions and recommendations to the Supervisory Board.
- 8.15. Tasks and competence of the Supervisory Board include the following:
- 8.15.1. Supervising the activities of the Management Board;
 - 8.15.2. Appointing and discharging the Chief Executive Officer and other Directors, concluding and terminating service contracts with them, as well as working out Code of Conduct for the Management Board members;
 - 8.15.3. Approving and amending the Bank's policy and other regulatory documents;
 - 8.15.4. Inspecting the Bank's books and property, including, inspecting the conditions of the Bank's cash, securities and goods personally, or through its members or invited experts;
 - 8.15.5. Requesting reports on the Bank's activities from the Management Board (including the dealings with the associated companies and subsidiaries) and reviewing the information provided by Internal Audit or external inspections;
 - 8.15.6. Convening an extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders, if necessary, for the Bank's benefit;
 - 8.15.7. Reviewing annual reports and the proposals of the Management Board on profit distribution;
 - 8.15.8. Representing the Bank in proceedings against the Bank's Chief Executive Officer and other Directors. If the matter of the responsibility of the Supervisory Board member is concerned, the Supervisory Board may submit a claim against the Chief Executive Officer (or any other Director) without the resolution by the General Meeting of the Shareholders or contrary to the decision of the General Meeting of the Shareholders;
 - 8.15.9. Approving annual budget and profit and loss plan, as well as the investments plan, assessing the obligations arising from long-term legal relations which shall be prepared and submitted by the Chief Executive Officer;
 - 8.15.10. Making decisions in other cases provided by applicable laws.
- 8.16. The responsibilities of the Management Board may not be delegated to the Supervisory Board.
- 8.17. The following activities may be carried out only with the approval of the Supervisory Board:

- 8.17.1. Acquisition and disposal of stake in other companies if the amount of such stake/shares exceeds 50% of the total equity of such company or the volume of the transaction exceeds two and a half percent (2.5%) of the Bank's equity value as at the end of the previous calendar month;
 - 8.17.2. Acquisition, transfer and encumbrance of the real estate and ownership rights, if such transaction falls outside the scope of routine economic activity of the Bank and the volume of such transaction exceeds two and a half percent (2.5%) of the Bank's equity value as at the end of the previous calendar month;
 - 8.17.3. Establishment and liquidation of branches;
 - 8.17.4. Investments, partial or total amount of which exceeds two and a half percent (2.5%) of the Bank's equity value as at the end of the previous calendar month;
 - 8.17.5. Borrowing funds in excess of two and a half percent (2.5%) of the Bank's equity value as at the end of the previous calendar month;
 - 8.17.6. Securing loans, if they fall outside the scope of routine economic activity;
